

Caitlin Lawson -

For the past ten years, Caitlin has been cultivating and enhancing her abilities in dance. Caitlin began dancing in 2011 at Grand Junction Academy of Dance and a year later she transferred. She has been dedicated to Absolute Dance and its programs since, working with artists such as Adam Parson and Ryan "Bosco" Baker. She also partakes in the dance program at Colorado Mesa University where she has worked with James Wallace, Amanda Benzin, and Meredith Lyons. She was the Alice understudy for the first Alice's Wonderland, and the Woodland Fairy in Absolute Dance's Snow White. She also partook in Colorado Mesa University's The Nutcracker for many years prior to enrollment at the university. She is thankful to still be part of the Absolute Dance Company as an alum and teacher.
