

Zephan Holt

Zephan Holt is originally from Eugene, OR, where he trained at Hosanna Dance from 2006-2018. He also was a part of Ballet Fantastique's Apprentice Fellowship Program from 2016-2018 and participated in company performances such as Alladin and The Legend of Sleepy Hollow. Afterwards Zephan was accepted into the University of Utah's ballet program, graduating with a BFA in 2022.

While at the University Zephan danced as a corps member in La Fille mal Gardee and Hilarion in Giselle, while also dancing solo roles in Melissa Bobick's Fractured, Susan Jaffee's Carmina Terra, Penny Saunders' Sur le Fil, and Jay Kim's version of Carmen. After graduating Zephan danced with Chrysalis Ballet, where he performed both the Nutcracker and the Sleeping Beauty grand pas. Zephan has also guested with schools and companies across the country, including San Jose Dance Theater's Sleeping Beauty and Boca Ballet's Nutcracker.
